

THESIS & DISSERTATION EXPERTS

DissertationProfessionals.com is America's premier thesis and dissertation consultants. We're your one-stop consultants for any part of the thesis and dissertation process. Our raison d'être is to help struggling graduate students complete their academic obligations so they can go on to achieve their full potential.

We understand the benefits of attaining an MA or PhD, and nothing makes us happier than to help individuals overcome their fear of writing, achieve their degree, and become better able to provide for their families. If you are considering our service, here are some important facts to consider:

1) START AT ANY CHAPTER

DissertationProfessionals.com can help you at any stage of the process. From the very beginning until the very end, our consultants are here to help. One popular chapter we often help with is the literature review. We make sure the latest sources are included to ensure a document that is above reproach. In Chapter 4, the Analysis of Data, our consultants look at your data and properly interpret your data to give you a thorough display and explanation that meets your needs. We'll also take your completed document and provide a thorough editing and ensure that it's submission-ready. No matter your stage of the process, our consultants are here for you.

2) STATISTICS CONSULTATION

At least half of the projects we undertake require our consultants to delve into statistics and regression analysis. We have used a plethora of software SPSS, RStudio, JMP, STATA and others. Our experienced consultants will outline exactly what you need including the type of data collection required (qualitative and quantitative). Many of our clients have custom needs when working with our statistical consultants. The beauty is that they are there for you. Just tell us what you need and we can help.

3) EDITING AND FINALIZATION

This popular service helps graduate students once they've completed their chapter and come to us for a second opinion. Many times, our clients' chapters are 99% there and only require a few touch-ups to make them submission-ready. Other times what seemed like a completed chapter requires more work and we explain why. We always leave the decision up to our client, and they decide what they wish to pursue. We are here to help.

4) EXPERIENCED WRITERS

DissertationProfessionals.com has a deep roster of exceptional consultants who have helped thousands succeed on their path to future careers. Whatever your subject area, our consultants have been there before. While many have written hundreds of chapters, every project is different, requiring its own specific plan to complete a particular chapter. There is no subject area we haven't been able to help with because our talent pool is deep. Call us today and send us your requirements.

5) EXPERIENCED STAFF

Our staff have walked thousands of graduate students through the thesis and dissertation process and have seen it all. Both Aline and Mike are ready to help you with your needs and guide you through the process. Every situation is different, so every individualized solution we prescribe comes with deep experience to give you a clear plan to complete your task.

6) CLIENT-FRIENDLY OPTIONS

Our service works with our clients by providing you with a payment plan that allows you to pay as you go. We understand the financial constraints of mature working students continuing their education while supporting a household. We handle special requests because every student is different and requires a unique approach. Contact us today and let's figure this out together.

Whether you're in Chicago, Houston, Seattle or Los Angeles, we're here for you. Our strong track-record of helping students complete their most complex academic document will help you succeed. Simply call or email us what you have so far and we'll give you constructive feedback and let you know what is needed to complete your document.

TESTIMONIALS

My dissertation supervisor is very picky to say the least. Your team has been so helpful in always making sure my supervisor has no excuses to set me back to the drawing board. I'm very happy working with Dissertation Professionals and I recommend anyone thinking of getting assistance with their dissertation to get it. It's worth it.

I came to you after finishing my thesis. Your editor went through it and showed me where it was lacking and helped me improve it. Ultimately, I was so happy with it that I submitted it with confidence. I'm so happy in working with your thesis editing service.

T. K.

Thanks for helping me with my literature review. Helping me navigate this chapter not only saved me a lot of time but by showing me what you did gave me the confidence to follow through with the next step in my dissertation. If I need help with future chapters I will be sure to be in touch.
